Topic: Situation in Syria

The Security Council meeting on November 16-18, 2014 in Zhengzhou, China in response to the situation in Syria and moving toward peace and security;

Aware of the fact that the Syrian government and the rebels do not agree;

Fully aware that many innocent people cannot get the medicine and food that the international community provides,

Affirming Security Council Resolution 2042, the six point plan;

1. Endorses the two sides coming together to find a solution to which that both the Syrian government and the rebels agree to end the violence,
2. Expresses its hope that the two sides allow humanitarian aid and help other UN agencies get food and materials to help the civilians of Syria;
3. Calls upon the government and rebels to sit down and discuss this problem and solve it peacefully;
4. Calls upon the two sides to determine the place and time for negotiations in a timely manner.
