

Food and Agriculture Organization

Topic: Food Security

Co-Sponsors: Arab Republic of Egypt, Canada, Commonwealth of Australia, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Federal Republic of Germany, Federal Republic of Somalia, Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, Independent State of Papua New Guinea, Islamic Republic of Iran, Islamic Republic of Pakistan, Japan, Kingdom of Norway, Kingdom of Thailand, People's

Republic of China, Plurinational State of Bolivia, Republic of Chad, Republic of Colombia, Republic of Cuba, Republic of Haiti, Republic of India, Republic of Indonesia, Republic of Italy, Republic of Kenya, Republic of Korea, Republic of Panama, Republic of Tunisia, State of Israel, State of Qatar, United Arab Emirates, United Kingdom of Britain and Northern Ireland, United States of America

Having examined many countries suffering from food insecurity,

Deeply concerned by this topic because of its impact on human life,

Observing the growth in human population,

Alarmed by the number of people impacted by food insecurity,

1. Approves of fundraisers all over the world;
2. Recommends the development of food banks;
3. Encourages making agriculture, forestry and fisheries more productive and sustainable;
4. Draws attention to planting more foods that are traditional to a country;
5. Considers building food storage containers and shipping them where needed;
6. Expresses the hope that member states will send materials to farmers;
7. Encourages the development of a food share program and making more nutritious food;

Resolution FAO/2.1

8. Calls upon farmers to donate food;
9. Urges member states to use water filtration for healthy and clean water and requests the development of desalination plants;
10. Supports healthy school lunch programs;
11. Notes that factories can pollute water and soil;
12. Encourages the development of solar farms and an increased amount of solar panels;
13. Recommends making community gardens where people work and get a share of food and goods through a co-op;
14. Encourages volunteers to educate parents on becoming food secure;
15. Supports the creation of a market where people can buy and sell food and goods;
16. Requests support from corporations;
17. Further requests the development of new farmland and food production techniques;
18. Encourages volunteers to teach people how to fish and farm;
19. Encourages the usage of biofortification, a way to add more nutrients to food;
20. Calls upon member states to research crops that grow in harsh climates;
21. Considers easier access and more effective distribution of food;
22. Considers a group of sponsors that could donate nutritional foods to schools.