

United Nations Developmental program

Co-sponsors: Indonesia, Ecuador, Belgium, Sweden, Korea, Angola, China, Cuba, United States, United Kingdom, Russia, Canada, Brazil, Germany, Australia, Morocco, and Norway

Topic: Eradication of Poverty

Deeply disturbed about the amount of gender inequality throughout the world and how this affects poverty,

Believing that by creating greater educational accessibility for children, they will be better able to seek and find jobs,

Alarmed by the huge amount of people struggling in poverty every day,

1. Approves the idea of supplying energy for least developed homes so they can also supply ways to read school assignments;
2. Keeping in mind that peacekeeping would improve the amount of impoverished refugees around the world;
3. Further reminds Member States of the problems of gender equality and how it contributes to poverty;
4. Expresses its hope that there will be more job opportunities in rural areas these jobs will be environmentally friendly without destroying already in place successful farmers;
5. Emphasizing the idea of free schooling so educated scholars can create or discover local businesses. As a result, building small local businesses will create more job opportunities;
6. Calls upon non-governmental organizations to give micro grants to women for the purpose of starting a business;
7. Affirms that alliances with Member States can help with the eradication of poverty, considerably;
8. Fully aware that hunger is partially caused by poverty, therefore supplying the right

Resolution UNDP/2.1

- nutritious organic food and clean water is necessary to eradicate;
9. Welcoming further help from organizations such as NORAD and the World Bank to make small donations to countries in need;
 10. Calls on Member States to focus its resources on targeted spending, so the money goes to areas of priority, such as local businesses;
 11. Endorses that governments with strong and equitable economies will aid in the eradication of poverty at home;
 12. Supports the idea of raising minimum wages as a way to lift people out of poverty;
 13. Endorses the creation of and funding for community shelters for the impoverished.