General Assembly First Committee

Co-Sponsors:

Benin, Republic of el Ecuador, Republic of Maldives, Republic of Guatemala, Republic of Chile, Republic of Moldova Republic of Singapore, Kingdom of Morocco, Republic of Latvia, Republic of Uganda , Republic of Sudan, Ukraine, Republic of Nicaragua, Republic of Peru, Republic of Ghana, Republic of Togo, Republic of the union Myanmar, Syrian Arab Republic, Republic of Serbia, Republic of South Sudan, Republic of the Philippines, State of Israel, Republic of Chad, United Mexican States, Republic of Kenya, Republic of India, Republic of Colombia, Democratic Republic of Timor-Leste, Oriental Republic of Uruguay, Socialist Republic of Vietnam, Republic of El Salvador, Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Malaysia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan

Topic: Cyber Security

The General Assembly,

Recognizing the importance of international relations, deeply concerned by the growing rate of cybercrimes, desiring international security, taking into account the unprotected devices that are prone to being hacked, fully aware of important files being stolen by cyber criminals, realizing that the population of hackers is growing, contemplating the possible solutions to this world wide problems,

1. Suggests that we should educate younger people to know the dangers of a cybercrime;

2. Accepts friendly hackers testing cyber security of other countries;

3. Considers that the government facilitates cyber activity;

4. Realizes the need to raise money to improve security in underdeveloped countries;

5. Calls upon IDR to conduct a study on the currents use of ICT's by governments and encourages cooperation between states;

6. Promotes education packages sent to people when they make social media accounts;

7. Allows the International Criminal Police Organization (INTERPOL) to go out to arrest cyber criminals overseas;

8. Seeks out NGOs that could have raise money to acquire virus protection programs for developing countries;

9. Supports MLAT's (Mutual Legal Assistance Treaty);

10. Recommends creating international cybercrime prevention task force;

11. Encourages technologies, including firewalls, key coding, passwords usernames, anti-virus and hack proof software to keep all information secured; and

12. Draws attention to laws to take legal actions against cyber criminals.

MONTESSORI MODEL UNITED NATIONS
Inspiring youth to create a better world