Topic: Agenda Item 132. H - Financial Reports UNICEF

Recalling that UNICEF was started in 1946 and has been helping children for the past 72 years,

Reminding all nations of the problems affecting children in developing countries and that UNICEF is in need of more money to assist in these areas,

Thanking donors and sponsors such as FC (Football Club) Barcelona for assisting UNICEF,

1. Further proclaims assertiveness from UNICEF to investors and sponsors, showing them how helping non-profits could improve their public image;
2. Recommends more sustainable job resources put in place in developing countries which will assist growing economies;
3. Suggests to have more familiar good-will ambassadors specifically popular young celebrities because they are more relatable towards others;
4. Requests more technology-based advertising (social media, apps, websites, etc) because it will help UNICEF's message reach out to more people;
5. Further considers showing people helping or being helped by UNICEF because it may increase the number of donations from average citizens around the world;
6. Further requests that developed countries donate unneeded funds, especially military funds, to UNICEF;
7. Acknowledges that tourism gives more opportunities to experience different ways of life, making visitors more inclined to donate to UNICEF;

8. Expresses its hope of teaching more fundamental skills to children, such as agriculture, personal hygiene, and education, because it will result in more knowledge of these subjects in the future;
9. Further encourages exporting and importing items which will give much needed supplies including food and water as well as assisting developing economies worldwide.
