Topic: Palestine Refugees in the Near East

Recalling its resolution 181 of 1947,

Guided by the growing number of Palestinian refugees in the Near East and elsewhere in the world,

Emphasizing the need for radical global cooperation,

Desiring eternal peace between the State of Palestine and the State of Israel,

Alarmed by the growing population of Palestinian refugees at risk,

Taking note of the fact that Palestinians lack basic skills such as reading and writing, and the UN recommends to creating workshops covering skills such as but not limited to:

- Sewing
- Cooking
- Cleaning

1. Encourages the UNRWA to mix Palestinian and Israeli students in schools so that (ad. ROY) they have the opportunity to grow up together to promote peace,
2. Emphasizes the need for all relevant governments to support and give Palestinian refugees their basic rights as human beings,
3. Requests all countries to implement programs to welcome Palestinian refugees in ways such as but not limited to:
 - Providing Education
 - Providing Shelter
 - Providing Jobs

- Providing Basic amenities
- Providing Health Services
