Topic: Implementation of the declaration on the granting of independence to colonial countries and peoples

The General Assembly, recognizes that some colonies still wish to be independent,

Considering that some colonies still want to be non-self-governing,

Recognizing the importance of The Declaration of The Granting Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples drafted on 14 December 1960,

Expressing concern for the social, economic, and political impact that effected present day and former colonies,

Believing that decolonization can occur without any violence,

I. Calls for the creation of a non-profit third-party foundation that can help all colonies;

2. Supports the creation of a foundation that would help mediate talks between non-self-governing territories and colonizers of the territories, help ensure fair elections, prevent violence, and help newly independent countries stabilize;
3. Recommends renegotiation between colonies and colonizers for decreased, increased, or elimination of military presence;
4. Encourages the proposed foundation to facilitate the negotiations between a colony's citizens to come to a conclusion on whether or not they should become independent;
5. Calls upon the colonizing powers to preserve the culture of the colonized population through a cultural education center.
