Topic: UNSC / The Situation in Libya

Today I will be reporting on the Situation in Libya. The problem of the Situation in Libya is part of the United Nations Security Council, also known as UNSC. The situation in Libya is a situation with problems such as illegal oil sales and military problems. The delegates in the committee room I visited (UNSC) agreed that they may be able to stop oil sales by using people working in the GNA. The GNA is the Government of National Accord.

In the committee room I visited today the delegates also discussed smaller and more specific issues within the broader topic of the situation in Libya, such as the ban on foreign countries in the military against the GNA, also known as the Government of National Accord. One of the groups of delegates I took notes on in the committee room thought of and came up with some ideas to solve some of these problems. Some of their ideas included thinking about the safety and wellness of the citizens of Libya. A couple others were recognizing the necessity for a solid and well noticed government. Also showing the necessity for the United Nations keepers of
